Classrooms Around the World

In honor of World Teachers' Day (which was October 5), here is a link to a slide show that features photos of classrooms from around the world. You don't need me to tell you that any of the pictures can be the origin point of a compare/contrast dialogue at any grade level – either comparing and contrasting classrooms in the slide show to other classrooms in the slide show or comparing and contrasting classrooms in the slide show to your own or, of course, both. May there be much discussion and a brisk exchange of opinions and ideas!

Founded in 1959, the Center for East Asian Studies (CEAS) at the University of Kansas is the only East Asian resource center in the Great Plains region. Educational outreach is a key component of the Center's mission. You can find lesson plans and many other materials online at <http://ceas.ku.edu/educator-resources>. If you're a teacher who would like to add East Asia content to your lessons across all curriculum areas, sign up for Outreach Notes at <http://ceas.ku.edu/email-list>.
